Description

Oil on panel signed lower right Origin: Lorraine - School of Nancy Period gilt wood frame Charming landscape scene bathed in the light of a setting sun, typical of the colorful and luminous style of Jean Vincent-Viry, a regional painter active in the 20th century. The work depicts a peaceful river lined with trees and water lilies, with two figures sitting on the bank in a bucolic and serene atmosphere. Jean Vincent-Viry, born in Nancy in 1920 and died in Villers-lès-Nancy in 2011, is recognized as one of the regional painters most attached to his native land. Founder of the Association Artistique Villaroise, he is often nicknamed "the painter of light" for his bright and warm palette. Total dimensions: 80x60 cm
Condition: Very good general condition - clean canvas, fresh colors, frame without missing parts
