Description

Artist: Fulvio Corrente (20th century) Title: Panoramic view of Saint-Tropez and the Gulf
Technique: Watercolor on paper Dimensions: 59 x 40 cm (visible) - 79 x 60 cm (framed)
Signature: Signed lower right Elegant watercolor depicting a panoramic view of the village of Saint-Tropez, dominated by the famous ochre bell tower, the red roofs and the deep blue of the Gulf. Fulvio Corrente, an artist of Italian origin, distinguished himself with his luminous scenes of the French Riviera, particularly around Saint-Tropez, capturing the Mediterranean atmosphere in a delicate and vibrant palette. The composition, framed by foliage in the foreground, opens onto the peaceful immensity of the sea, punctuated by sailboats. A refined work, between architectural precision and poetic evocation.
