Description

A 1600s masterpiece with great visual impact
This magnificent walnut sideboard, crafted in the Lombard-Venetian region in the 17th century, is a true representation of historic Italian furniture. Its large dimensions (200x61x132 cm) make it perfect for grand interiors--be they historical residences or modern spaces seeking heritage charm.

Exceptional materials and authentic patina
Made entirely of solid walnut, this sideboard reflects expert artisanal work. Preserved in its original patina, it radiates antique beauty and character. Time has left some surface signs, but these marks enhance its allure and story. The original lock is still in place and fully functional, a valuable rarity.
