1 900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

We present a rare and remarkable pair of large armchairs from the early 19th century, made of solid cherry wood in the Consulate style. Dated between 1820 and 1830, these seats impress with their classic silhouette, typical of the Empire period -- sober and imposing lines, ornaments inspired by antiquity. The armchairs have a solid structure and generous dimensions: Height: 102 cm | Width: 69 cm | Depth: 64 cm They are upholstered in a carefully chosen later fabric in a dark and elegant shade, perfectly in harmony with the noble character of the period. The edge is highlighted by a studded braid, reinforcing their refinement. The carved armrests and ornate legs testify to great craftsmanship and faithful respect for the Consulate style. An ideal choice for collectors, lovers of classic decoration or as a
