Here are two amazing little masks. Made of cardboard, covered with paper and painted, they each take inspiration from Tribal Masks. They bear the handwritten mention on paper "Prométhée" or "IQ" and each is signed with the pen of H Cordreaux. Henri Cordreaux was a man of theater and wrote several books on theatrical equipment, including mask making. Good general condition, a little wear on the horns of one, a small break on the upper edge of the other. Please look carefully at my detailed photos, I am not hiding anything!
