Description

Elegant Jacquard Silk Fragment - Early 20th Century A delightful fragment of antique silk, woven in jacquard. The fabric features delicate alternating yellow and ivory stripes, punctuated with small floral bouquets and garlands in soft shades of pink and green. A refined textile, with beautiful fresh colors and in excellent condition, ideal for decoration or restoration projects: making cushions, dressing boxes or objects, textile framing, or for collectors of antique silks. Entirely in the taste of the 18th century, Louis XVI. Dimensions: 65 cm x 47 cm A beautiful decorative piece, a testament to the textile know-how of the early 20th century. ref 030625
