in our opinion further research is required on this painting which is of a very fine quality. Jean-Étienne Liotard (1702-1789) was a Genevan painter, art connoisseur and dealer. He is best known for his detailed, strikingly naturalistic portraits in pastel, and for the works from his stay in Turkey. A Huguenot of French origin he was born and died in Geneva, but spent most of his career in stays in the capitals of Europe. His portraits display a certain softness and distinctness of the eyes which the portrait we are offering also shows.

Condition report: The painting has been professionally restored at some point and is in excellent condition for its age with minimal visual craquelure. Any retouching has been generally well-blended. The canvas is in good tension and the paint surface is stable. There are no patch repairs to the verso. In our opinion this lovely portrait is ready to hang on the wall.
