Description

Black forest lamp from the Napoleon III period. The decoration of the ibex on a hill is strikingly realistic! He is eating peacefully at the foot of a fir tree. The central medallion is monogrammed AG with pearl decoration with a fall of fruit. The animated brass ensemble is enhanced by the base frame. Tulip glassware is held in place by cuffs. The frame is also made of brass and the branch is made of bronze. Screw bulb. Electricity revised. Rare model! Delivery possible not included in the price.
