Extendable Walnut Table, Directoire Style 1770 -
Timeless Elegance for Your Home

A Masterpiece from the Late 18th Century

This stunning extendable walnut table, crafted around 1770 during the Directoire period, is one of the finest expressions of Italian cabinetmaking. Hailing from a refined artisan tradition, it enhances both classic and modern interiors with its elegant simplicity and premium material quality.

The Perfect Balance of Function and Style

One of its most remarkable features is its versatility. Its compact dimensions when closed (140x120xh80 cm) expand to an impressive 260 cm, offering ample space for guests. This extension system makes it an ideal choice for those seeking both historical character and everyday practicality.

Walnut Wood with Original Patina

The carefully selected walnut wood reveals warm tones and rich grain, enhanced by its original patina. Clean lines and a solid structure, typical of the Directoire style, emphasize its understated charm and noble presence.

Condition and Technical Details

In good overall condition, the table shows only minimal wear consistent with age, which adds to its appeal. It is ready to use, with no restoration needed. Dimensions: 140x120xh80 cm (closed), extendable to 260 cm.
