Description

Peace Bearer. Bronze. 16th century. Bronze peace bearer with a flat, C-shaped handle on the back, with relief decoration on the front framed in a classical architectural composition common to the Renaissance. Below the side columns are two heraldic shields (without caps, cords with tassels on three levels) with a Latin cross in the central area; the center shows a Birth of Christ under a domed dome with winged angel heads in the corners; at the top and under a semicircular arch is the bust of Santo Domingo de la Calzada, facing forward, with an inscription in capital letters. - Size: 10.5x5x15.5 cm
