Description

Pair of chipli-kath-tala-kartal India-18th or 19th century from the family of castanets in wood and metal. Zoomorphic percussion often in the shape of a fish. Here we will rather speak of crocodile and bird's head. The patina is very beautiful. Rare and quality instrument which was played with one hand by opening and closing the palm which holds the two elements together. Length: 27 cm each of the two elements
