Description

Turned walnut tondo carved from a single block, featuring a rare central relief in stucco depicting the biblical Tree of Life with Adam, Eve and the serpent. This piece, dating to the mid-17th century, has a moulded edge and a central insert that was likely used as a decorative or functional mould. The back bears the inscription "S.A.C.R. 1655".A highly atmospheric and rare devotional object combining sacred iconography and artisanal craftsmanship. Age-related cracks and stable fractures are present, consistent with its age.Frame diameter: 24 cmRelief diameter: 12.5 cmFor more information, feel free to contact us. Worldwide shipping available.
