Description

Martigues, the famous Provençal Venice which was the great source of inspiration and one of the favorite subjects of Provençal artists of the 19th and early 20th centuries. The work is done in oil on canvas, it is offered in a simple, gilded frame, which measures 71.5 cm by 53 cm and 61.5 cm by 43.5 cm for the canvas alone. It represents characters on the Quai Poterne in the background the famous Maison au Chapeau de Gendarme which was the setting for the film "La Cuisine au Beurre". In good condition, it is signed lower right. A picturesque and anecdotal work, a lovely testimony to a bygone era. A student of Luc-Olivier Merson and Jean-Paul Laurens, he exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français, of which he was a member from 1886 to 1897: "Return from Hunting" (1886), "An Amateur's
