Description

Rare large birdcage or aviary in zinc, painted metal (and wood), in the shape of a large house or bourgeois manor (small castle), wide entrance or porch with double staircase, signed Courdavault L. on the roof, from the late 19th-early 20th centuries. This birdcage is in good general condition, it is of exceptional quality. It has its cleaning drawer (which works). Note: missing a chimney and a small piece on a ridge (see red arrows), some slight shocks and dents, some paint loss, dirt and wear of time, look carefully at the photos of details. ATTENTION: FOR A DELIVERY QUOTE CONTACT US WITH CITY AND COUNTRY OF DESTINATION.
