Pair Of Opaline Perfume Bottles, Palais-royal, Charles X Period

2 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Description

A pair of turquoise-blue opaline perfume bottles, with openwork gilded brass mounts featuring filigree foliage motifs; the necks are accented with a gadrooned band; the hinged stoppers each set with two glass-framed scenes depicting views of Rome (St Peter's Square and the Colosseum). Paris, Palais-Royal. Charles X period.H_12 cm Very good condition.  The interiors of the stoppers are not exactly the same (see photos)During the Restoration, the shops of the Palais-Royal in Paris specialised in producing exquisite decorative and toiletries made from coloured opaline, adorned with openwork settings and embellished with small miniature scenes mounted under glass, intended for a wealthy clientele of art lovers and travellers on the Grand Tour.Our pair of perfume bottles, which fits

Dealer

Rosita Rapetti Gallery
Art et antiquités Russia et Européens
Tel : +33659879603

Via Nuvoloni 19
Sanremo 18038

perfectly into this trend for exquisite souvenirs, is a testament to the craftsmanship of goldsmithing and artistic tabletterie during the reign of Charles X, combining the freshness of turquoise opaline with the precision of the miniatures depicting the great Roman monuments.