Description

Elegant patinated brass desk lamp, attributed to Giovanni Michelucci and produced by Lariolux in the 1940s for Italian public offices and ministries. This iconic design features a gracefully arched arm with a swivel joint, a wide flattened dome-shaped shade with molded rim, and the original push-button switch on the circular base. Made entirely of metal with original patina. The shade measures 22 cm in diameter, the base 16 cm, and the total height is 41 cm. The lamp is in good vintage condition and fully functional, though rewiring is recommended to comply with the electrical standards of the destination country. A rare and sought-after piece in the historical Italian design market.???? Worldwide shipping available. Feel free to contact us for further information or detailed
