Description

An exceptional Regency-style fireplace with its original trumeau. Dating from the 18th century. Made from two Belgian marbles: Waulsort and Gris d'Andenne. The beautiful and sturdy shelf rests on two monumental jambs, made from Gris d'Andenne marble, in perfect match with the overall Waulsort marble. This fireplace with it's original trumeau is rare to find and one of the most striking chimneypieces we have came across! A large, wooden panel is placed in the trumeau, presenting a Louis XVI style decor. Total height of fireplace and trumeau is 120 cm plus 290 cm is approximately 420 cm maximum (the trumeau can be shortened, if necessary). Delivery in Europe is possible, carried out by Antique Fireplaces First: 'In House Delivery'. Worldwide shipping.
