Description

Imposing Louis XV style console table, crafted in the early 20th century by an expert cabinetmaker, with elaborate, deep, hollow carving in gilded wood. The console table features a harmonious structure with curved legs, a decorated crosspiece, and a front adorned with a spectacular central plume-shaped motif. It also features meticulous side carvings, perfectly in keeping with the overall effect. The top is topped with delicate beveled glass with golden and pinkish reflections, adding a refined and warm touch. It is in very good condition and offers good structural stability. A decorative piece with great presence, ideal for entrances, living rooms, or high-end classic spaces, seeking to stand out for its craftsmanship and visual impact. Dimensions:

Height 82 cm · Width 95 cm · Depth 30 cm
