Description

This tea table, made of fine carved wood and subsequently gilded with pure gold leaf, is an authentic masterpiece of design and craftsmanship. Characterized by a round fabric top, elegantly protected by glass, it is a true combination of functionality and aesthetic beauty. Its structure is supported by three curly legs, which give a touch of elegance and refinement. The central shaft also helps to guarantee its stability and solidity. The Florentine origin of this valuable manufacture dates back to the first half of the 19th century, testifying to the high quality and refinement of the craftsmanship of that era. Thanks to its extraordinary combination of refined abstract and phytomorphic details and tailoring, this tea table represents design excellence, making the environment truly unique.
