Description

Wrought iron hearth shovel - 18th or 19th century
Shovel with a very worked handle, made of a spinning top, faceted middle part. The top of the shovel is cut in the shape of a "heart" (see the photos of details which are telling). The whole is forged in one piece. Object of great finesse, refined and decorative. Functional. Good condition, derusted and polished which gives it its shine. Length 68 cm, width 11.5 cm
