Description

18-carat gold, tanzanite, and diamond clip-on earrings - Collection II, Roulla (France)

Exceptional pair of contemporary 18-carat yellow gold drop earrings, from Collection II by French designer Roulla, inspired by Tanzania and the vitality of its gems. This poetic yet structured model takes up the organic design of a stylized branching or constellation, punctuated with gold spheres and bezel-set white diamonds. The finely hammered surface work brings a lively and precious texture to the whole. Each drop is centered on a natural tanzanite of approximately one carat, with an intense and luminous blue, set with prongs in a radiant surround. The earrings are currently mounted on ear clips (without piercing), but can be adapted on request to a post version by adding a soldered or screwed system, depending on the wearer's needs. Discreet but emblematic signature of Roulla, a single enameled ladybug is hidden on the reverse of one of the two pendants -- an emotional mark, always unique, which accompanies each creation of the jeweler like a secret imprint. An exceptional jewel-sculpture, combining technical virtuosity, mineral beauty and symbolic language.
