Description

BACCARAT Covered crystal bowl with flat-sided facets, set in chiselled vermeil with two double handles decorated with vine tendrils; the lid is topped with a pine-cone-shaped knob and rests on a pedestal base and a square plinth supported by four claw feet. France. Charles X period. H_33 cm. In perfect condition. The Charles X style is characterised by the grace of its forms and the refinement of its ornamental motifs in chiselled bronze or vermeil, with a particular emphasis on naturalistic motifs such as vine leaves and fruit. Our lidded bowl, part of Baccarat's range of exquisite crystalware produced during the Restoration, demonstrates a masterful command of crystal cutting combined with the opulence of its gilded setting.
