Description

Pair of Bayeux Porcelain and Gilt-Bronze Lamps - Late 19th Century A beautiful pair of Bayeux porcelain vases with a deep cobalt-blue ground, decorated with hand-painted courting scenes and polychrome floral bouquets within finely gilded reserves. The vases feature rich, finely chased gilt-bronze mounts characteristic of the Napoleon III style. They have been converted into lamps and professionally rewired in compliance with current electrical standards. The elegant pleated lampshades were custom-made in colours carefully selected to complement the porcelain decoration. In excellent condition, this refined decorative pair would bring warmth and elegance to both classical and contemporary interiors. Dimensions: Vases: H. 48 cm / 18.9 in With lampshades: H. 82 cm / 32.3 in - D. 45 cm
