

19th Century French Cashmere Shawl, Maison Biétry, Supplier To Their Imperial Majesties

850 EUR

Signature : Biétry

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Linen

Width : 186 cm

Height : 184 cm

Description

19th Century French Cashmere Shawl Maison Biétry, Purveyor to Their Imperial Majesties 19th century French cashmere shawl from the prestigious Maison Biétry, patented purveyor to Their Imperial Majesties, awarded a gold medal in 1834, 1839 and a silver medal in 1844. This refined textile, made in the Villepreux workshops, was sold at the time by the famous Grands Magasins de Nouveautés Larue & Cie, located on rue de Rivoli in Paris. This cashmere known as "Harlequin" is distinguished by the harmony and vivacity of its red, green, saffron, blue, black and white colors and the richness of its weave. It has never been worn and is in exceptional condition: no holes, no stains, colors have remained perfectly fresh. It still comes with its original label sewn on the back, as well as its

Dealer

Atelier 21

Antiques and décoration

Mobile : 0609457367

Samonac 33710

period box, decorated with the green and gold emblem of Maison Biétry. The inside of the box also contains a lovely illustrated envelope in gold representing the facade of the Grands Magasins Larue. Its original box shows traces of soiling and the ties for closing are no longer present (see photo). Characteristics : Origin : France House: Biétry, imperial patent supplier Material : Cashmere Condition : Perfect, never worn Original element : Label, period box, illustrated envelope Provenance : Grands Magasins de Nouveautés Larue & Cie, Paris A collector's item, ideal for lovers of antique textiles, collectors or decorators looking for an exceptional heritage fabric. Dimensions : Height : 184 cm Width : 186 cm Plus 4 cm of fringes For any further information, do not hesitate to contact us.