Description

Empire mahogany coffee table or bedside table, mahogany veneer, gray Hainaut marble top. Mounted on columns and shaped like a "bridge", our table is veneered on all sides with french polish mahogany, gilt bronze trim. It opens with 3 drawers and has retained its pretty original key. Late Empire period, 1810s. Veneered on all sides, our table is well suited to use as a coffee table in the center of a room or as a bedside table. It is lower than a usual Empire bedside table, which makes it very suitable for use with today's lower beds. Our table is in excellent condition; the old french polish has been cleaned and repolished by our cabinetmaker. No accidents or missing parts. Width: 42.5cm Depth: 33cm Height: 71cm
