Description

This lemonwood veneer sofa, dating from the Art Deco period of the 1930s, is a true masterpiece of design and elegance. The central sofa, upholstered in a geometric patterned fabric, offers two-seater sprung seating that is firm and comfortable. The two integrated end tables, with shelves and drawers with brass handles, add a touch of functionality and sophistication. Above, a veneer panel, arranged in quatrefoils, is surmounted by a beveled oval mirror. This mirror is beautifully crowned by a molded floral arrangement, adding an artistic and refined touch. The whole rests on gadrooned ogival legs, which perfectly complement the elegant and harmonious design of this unusual piece. This sofa is not only a functional piece of furniture, but also a work of art that captures the salt of Art Deco.
