Description

Nigeria, Mambila people, first half of the 20th century, very interesting "Tadep" type statuette in hardwood, with a dark brown patina of use with shiny reflections. It is carved with straight planes, the hands placed on the stomach, the head triangular in shape with a slightly concave, heart-shaped face. The facial features are prominent, the eyes are coffee beans and the mouth is open. Dimensions: Height 18.5 (cm) - 22.5 (cm) with the base. The scale indicator in the last photograph is a small model of lighter from a well-known brand. Good condition except for the visible traces of wood-eating attacks, now completely neutralized; without affecting the very beautiful aesthetics of this piece.
