Description

Beautiful handmade Indian Agra rug. This rug is handcrafted of wool and cotton and professionally cleaned. Handmade Indian Agra rugs are renowned for their rich history, craftsmanship, and luxurious appeal. Originating in the Mughal era of the 16th century, these rugs were made in Agra, India, a city that became a center of Persian-style rug weaving under the patronage of Emperor Akbar. These rugs are typically hand-knotted using high-quality wool and sometimes silk, resulting in a dense, durable pile.
