Description

Gilded wood center table, carved on its four sides, with shell and acanthus leaves in its centers, on a background of crosspieces. On either side on the longest sides are presented a fine foliage bouquet. It rests on four arched legs, very harmoniously carved with palmettes and floral garlands framed on either side with a scrolling shell. Gilded wood clogs with a similar decoration of shell, scroll and floral bouquet. This center table supports a red marble top from Flanders, molded with a corbin beak. Very beautiful work from the Regency period in its original gilding, whose very finely worked sculptures are of a high quality. H 80 cm x W 132 cm x D 65 cm
