Description

Pretty little acid-etched glass night light of a Vosges Landscape by the Gallé establishments. Art Nouveau period, early 20th century. Very good condition. Beautiful decoration dear to Gallé, the "blue line of the Vosges" symbolic of the exodus following the war of 1870, and therefore of the border between Alsace and Lorraine. Very good condition. Renovated electricity. Original openwork and gilded brass cabochon. The decoration on a light background is expressed even when the night light is not lit. Height without the cabochon: 14 cm
