Description

Elegant etching depicting a bustling port, with a majestic three-masted ship docked alongside a smoking steamer. The composition perfectly illustrates the 19th century maritime transition, between sailing and the industrial revolution. Beautifully crafted work, likely European (English or Dutch school), executed with finesse and density of line. The whole is presented in a neat frame with a purple mat and gilt rod. Technique: Etching on laid paper Period: Late 19th / early 20th century Dimensions on view: 23 x 17 cm Dimensions with frame: 38 x 32 cm Framed under glass Very decorative, in good general condition.
