Description

This work depicts a seated lady spinning wool in a rustic interior. On a frequently discussed theme, this painting stands out for the quality of its execution. Indeed, the light diffused with finesse, gives the scene a soft and controlled atmosphere. Note the remarkable detail of the line of light highlighting the thread connecting the spinner to her spinning wheel. It is the work of a talented painter to be identified. Color merchant on the back located in Nancy, annotation and location in pencil on the frame. Painting on its original canvas, presented in its gilded wooden frame. The whole is in good general condition (see photos)
