Description

Louis XVI style chandelier with ram's head decorations, and various attributes such as the crossed ribbon knot, garlands of leaves and flowers and fluting. Its bronze frame is completed by 4 opaque glass tulips on the sides and by garlands of tassels on the lower part. Each tulip has a light, and a bulb also in the center of the chandelier at the level of the garlands of tassels, allowing perfect lighting and a shine of the tassels. Very good condition of the whole. French work from the beginning of the 20th century. All our light fixtures are fully restored by our workshop, both in terms of the structure and the electricity, and are therefore in perfect working order. Bulbs to use : Bayonet bulb, type B22. Possibility of collection on site, or contact us for possible shipping. Dimensions - Weight : 7.5
