12-light cage chandelier with a gilded bronze frame and decorated with crystal pendants. It is also decorated with 3 small daggers in the upper part, 3 larger ones in the lower part and a large one in the center of the chandelier's cage. Note that 3 smoked crystal pendants are at the top of the cage. Around the chandelier there are 9 lights, and at the bottom of the cage 3 additional ones, allowing for complete lighting and a very beautiful shine of the crystal. The socket covers are covered with wax, we note that they are cracked in places for the most part. We note that some pendants have chips or small chips, and that a large and a small dagger have a chip at the base which does not prevent them from holding perfectly. All of these imperfections are completely invisible on an overall view. Very
