Description

Breton school. Oil on canvas "The washerwomen at work" signed lower right BULLET or BUTLER to be determined. French school. 61 X 50 cm. Our painting dates from the very end of the 19th century or the very beginning of the 20th. Thick and powerful strokes give this work a quality worthy of the best painters of the Pont-Aven School. Unless it is a foreign artist, American for example, like Theodore Earl Butler (1861-1936) who practiced his profession in Giverny. It's up to you to judge (I am open to your suggestions). Unframed. A small accident. Good general condition. 680 euros.
