Description

Old painting dating from the middle of the 18th century. Religious scene depicting a well-known biblical episode: the repentance of Saint Peter after his denial, symbolized by the presence of the rooster, in reference to the biblical verse "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times". Magnificent gouache with very bright colors. The work is presented in its original frame in carved and gilded wood, oval in shape, richly decorated with rocaille motifs and shells, characteristic of the Louis XV style. 32.5cm x 28cm Good condition
