PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Tripod Pedestal Tables, Louis XVI.

28 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Bronze

Width : 29

Height : 81,5

Description

Circular in shape, in gilded bronze and finely chiseled, with two shelves covered in white marble with a frame modeled with small curtains with animal heads. Triangular base with amphora in the center. H. 81.5 x W. 29 cm. Used condition (second marble cracked, to be replaced?). Provenance: Galerie W. Apolloni, Via del Babuino, Rome (1992). Reference bibliography: M. Deschamps, Empire Style, Milan, 1994, fig. p. 48, (Bonaparte Library in Malmaison, in the center, a similar pedestal table).

Dealer

Galerie Pellat de Villedon

French furnitures of the 17th & 18th centuries

Mobile : 06 07 57 01 20

2 bis rue Carnot

Versailles 78000