Description

Rare two-tiered natural rattan rolling table, attributed to the famous French design duo Adrien Audoux and Frida Minnet, key figures in modern rustic furniture from the 1940s and 50s. Curved rattan structure with ligatures decoration, resting on four straight legs finished with original casters. The two tops are lined with horizontally arranged rattan rods, each adorned with a central ceramic decoration glazed in bright red hues with flamboyant abstract patterns, a typical aesthetic signature of the period. The upper part is equipped with a rattan handle for easy movement.
