Description

An iconic pair of mid-century lounge chairs designed by the designer Ico Parisi for Ariberto Colombo, crafted in Italy during the 1950s. These sculptural chairs exemplify Parisi's masterful fusion of modernist lines and organic forms, showcasing a confident and timeless Italian design sensibility.Featuring gently flared arms, wide angular backs, and plush seating, the chairs offer both visual elegance and superior comfort. Their subtle curves and clean geometry reflect Parisi's architectural background, while the tapered wooden legs add a light, refined touch that contrasts beautifully with the bold form.Both in very good condtion.
