Description

A large tulip-shaped vase...In blown crystal...With multiple layers...The last of which is in opaline...And the first in clear crystal...The one in the middle is a mixture of colored crystal...It's a beautiful technique to bring them together...With a nice hot work of shaping for the foot and the shaping...The foot is in ten ribs...From the 1930s/40s...Manufacture of MURANO - ITALY...In very good condition, some traces of use...Like scratches underneath...And micro chips on some rounded edges of the foot ribs...And small manufacturing imperfections Which are the sign of manual work...!It's almost a square...It's pretty on all sides...!Weight...4 kilos and more...My scale for objects over 4 kilos is less precise...!
