Description

Solid wood and polychrome sculpture from the early 18th century representing a saint.

Magnificent baroque sculpture from the counter-reformation with a very beautiful movement, particularly in the cape and its falls. Note the expression of the face animated by its glass sulfide eyes and the very lively attitude of the model. Possible origin, Italy or Provence.

Beautiful polychromy from the period with very little repainting, staff of Saint John also from the period. Very beautiful size, height 130 cm, giving this work an extraordinary presence and which will give a beautiful interior a museum-like presence and high quality. Possibility of sending by professional and specialized carrier. Invoice and certificate provided.
