250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Elegant Louis XV style bedside table, made in the renowned workshops of Maison Marquant, located in the Faubourg Saint-Antoine in Paris. This refined piece of furniture, dating from the mid-20th century, perfectly illustrates the expertise of French cabinetmakers perpetuating the tradition of art furniture. Its precious wood marquetry veneer, with stylized floral decoration, harmoniously matches the curved curves of the front and sides. It opens with two drawers adorned with finely chiseled gilded bronzes. The marble top with warm, veined shades gives the whole an elegant note. The gilded bronze falls and sabots accentuate the refinement of this piece.
