Description

We present this lovely pair of framed 19th century watercolors, signed H. Sticks. They are undeniably English, they are landscapes of England. They are dated 1866, we find Sticks including a Harry but born in 1867 while the watercolors are dated 1866. I looked at the latest BENEZIT issue (10 volumes) and yet it is undeniably a true artist who treated this pair of watercolors, I hope that an amateur knowing how to make the difference by the quality, faced with abstraction the fact that we cannot locate the painter.
