Description

Louis XVI style half-moon console table in mahogany with two tops. The top is made of white Carrara marble, surrounded by an openwork gilt bronze gallery. The marble shows a slight antique trace on the surface. The apron has a central drawer and two false side drawers, each decorated with bronze pull rings. The four fluted and tapered legs are connected by a crotch shelf highlighted by an openwork gilt bronze gallery. The whole rests on gilt bronze spinning top-shaped shoes.
