

Carved Wooden Architectural Ornament - Neo-gothic Style - Fantastic Dragon - 19th Century

550 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 49 cm

Width : 42 cm

Height : 52 cm

Description

Carved wooden architectural ornament - Neo-Gothic style - Fantasy dragon - 19th century Impressive architectural ornament in finely carved solid wood, depicting a mythological creature of the dragon or sea griffin type, set in a leafy decoration. This bas-relief is typical of the Neo-Gothic style of the late 19th century, with a high level of detail and remarkable craftsmanship.
Description The woodwork is particularly expressive: the dragon curls into a dynamic posture between acanthus leaves and architectural volutes. The base and the capital with multiple moldings give the whole a great stability and a strong sculptural presence. This piece could be part of: ecclesiastical furniture, a woodwork element of a private mansion or castle, or even a decorative base of a

Dealer

Le sanctuaire des curiosités

Religious Arts - Curiosities - Works of Art - Haute Epoque

Mobile : +32470300329

1 Impasse de la rue des moulins

Tournai 7500

monumental work. Technical details: Estimated period: Late 19th century Style: Neo-Gothic / Fantastic Renaissance Material: Solid wood (probably walnut or dark oak) Sculpture: Handwork, very detailed Height: 52 cm Base: 49 x 42 cm Estimated weight:  $\pm$  10 kg Condition: Good general condition for its age. Minor wear, micro-cracks and slight losses at the corners (see photos), consistent with the age. Original patina preserved. Solid piece, ready to be displayed or integrated into a restoration or interior design project. A second similar ornament is for sale. Do not hesitate to contact me for any additional information or request for additional photos concerning the items offered for sale.