Description

Beautiful chest of drawers, wooden top, called mazarine, in veneer and marquetry of native woods such as; olive, plum, burl, elm, elm fillets, stained maple, the central motif in end grain veneer. This elegant chest of drawers with "pretty" proportions is typical of the Grenoble region and more particularly of the Hache and Thomas Hache workshops. This chest of drawers can be dated around 1720. It opens on the front with three drawers in three rows, the front uprights in the form of a mazarine, wooden top, chiseled and gilded bronze ornamentation. This chest of drawers is presented in very good condition, restored in a pretty "blonde" patina, very bright!
