Beautiful Pair Of Chinese Hexagonal Armchairs In Hongmu Wood, Openwork Lingzhi Decor, 19thc

1 450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

Very beautiful model of armchairs. In solid wood, probably Hongmu, they are made of hexagonal shape, armrests with curved bars and openworked backs, ornate with a Lingzhi decoration, a thousand-year-old mushroom, very good symbolism. Wide low seats, unusual, very comfortable, good quality, genuine and antiques Chinese furniture! Good general condition. I note all the same, a slight difference in color between the two, a small lack on a back foot, a crack on the seat, and some traces of wear. Everything is well mentioned on my detailed photos, thank you for looking at them carefully, I am not hiding anything! Chinese working, dating from the middle of the 19th century Circa 1840-1860. Dimensions: H 84cm. Seat height 44cmWidth 69cmDepth 54.5cmSHIPPING CONDITIONS
