Description

Lovely fireplace mirror in gilded stuccoed wood in the "Neo Louis-XVI" style, beveled sides with mirrors in pareclose, pediment with a quiver in laurel wreath and falling foliage. Beautifully structured with its parquet back and its beautiful original stains, the mirror itself preserved and with a beautiful reflection, this beautiful mirror will be useful in the living room in a decor where it will reflect the light diffusing its presence, the chamfered sides accentuating the beautiful effects of the light, the molding of the elements which compose the frame with rich motifs of protruding bosses, giving richness and a beautiful ornamentation, the high whiplash sides giving elegance. Its life gives it an incomparable patina and it is not flashy; its measured size allows it to be easily placed on a fireplace or dominating a
