Description

Three-drawer drop-leaf cabinet with a structure veneered in exotic woods and inlaid with fine wood essences, surmounted by a reclining top with a storage compartment inside. The front is marked by three drawers, one of which is smaller under the top, enhanced by the presence of a dense raceme inlay. The two larger drawers have the same raceme inlay and are highlighted by the presence of gilded nozzles and handles. The same layout as the front is repeated on the sides and edges, with a shell in the center. The drop-leaf cabinet has six storage drawers inside that can be pulled out using bronze knobs. Typical truncated pyramidal feet with a constriction ennobled by fillets arranged at the head to emphasize the corners. All the drawer bottoms and the back including hardware and locks are original from
