

Shako Officer Chasseur On Horseback 1874, Complete With Carrying Case, Plume And Pompom

1 190 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Other

Description

Superb Shako for an officer of mounted "chasseurs à cheval", model 1874, complete with its carrying case, pompom and plume for parade. Third Republic period, circa 1874-1914. Cardboard covered with a fine sky blue cloth, bordered on the upper part with an officer's braid in silver braid 2.8cm wide. It is decorated on the front with a hunting horn in gilded brass, a cockade in tricolor fabric and a silver braid held by a button in gilded brass. Chin strap made of a gilded brass chain and black leather. It is held on the shako by three lion masks in gilded brass. Visor in thick black leather bordered with a gilded brass. Linner in black leather and silk bearing the initials of the officer "HG". Beautiful parade plume for "chasseur à cheval" officer made of black feathers with green

Dealer

Paris Antiques

Icons, paintings, Asian art and military antiques

Tel : 06 52 51 93 65

Marché aux Puces de Paris, 129-131 rue des Rosiers

Saint-Ouen 93400

highlights and a silver braid olive. This shako is also equipped, for service and combat, with its officier silver braid pompom contained in a small cardboard box. Rare in this near-new condition.